

National Childhood Services Week

11th – 17th June 2018

Celebrating 21 years of supporting the development of quality childhood services, National Childhood Network (NCN) invites all early years and school age childcare service providers, staff and children to join with us and participate in the first ever National Childhood Services Week

Why?

NCN aims to make the important role of the childhood sector more visible to the wider community during this designated week

How?

By all providers, staff and children participating in a range of activities during this week that help showcase the valuable work that services do

When?

Activities can take place any time from 11th -17th June

Make History Together

Let's make history during this special week through showcasing and highlighting the sector's work for children, parents and families

If you would like to join and be part of this national initiative, please email info@ncn.ie with the name and location of your service. We will then send you further information to support your participation. For more information on NCN, visit www.ncn.ie
